

AAUW Northshore

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) Northshore branch would like to present a $1500 scholarship for books or supplies to a young woman who is highly motivated to further her education. Our focus is on the student who does not qualify for an academic scholarship; students who receive an academic scholarship are not eligible. The student must reside in St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, or Washington Parish and plan to attend Delgado Community College, Northshore Technical Community College, Baton Rouge Community College or Nunez Community College.

If currently enrolled, a copy of a current transcript is required. If not currently enrolled, a copy of a High School diploma or GED certificate/HiSET is required. The applicant must be pursuing her first Associate degree. The awardee will be announced June 30th. Proof of attendance and enrollment in a minimum of 6 (six) hours is required before the funds will be released. Please block out your Social Security number on all documents. Former applicants and recipients may reapply. All submissions will be destroyed after one year.

The student must fill out the application and supply the required materials postmarked no later May 31, 2023.

1. The applicant must submit a letter stating why you should be awarded this scholarship including anything describing her accomplishments and future goals (maximum of 5 pages).
2. Provide two additional letters (limit 200 words) stating why you should be awarded this scholarship.
 - a. One letter written by an adult relative or guardian (please identify the relationship)
 - b. One letter written by a teacher, counselor or other school authority
3. Proof of enrollment (for example: transcript) or graduation certificate as stated above.
4. The applicant may be called for an interview.
5. As part of receiving this award, the recipient will be expected to attend our fall membership meeting so that other members will have an opportunity to meet the recipient and the awardee should be willing to be an advocate for this scholarship program at AAUW events.

Send the completed application and all requested materials to
